

TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND RULES FOR THE PROVISION OF THE SKI SCHOOL AND SPORTS EQUIPMENT RENTAL SERVICES

I. APPLICABILITY OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR PROVIDING THE SERVICES

1.1 These general terms and conditions apply to the relations between the customers, Pamporovo AD and the personnel of the ski schools and ski rental shops of Pamporovo AD, occurring with respect or in relation to the provision of the “sports equipment rental” and “ski school” services. The General Terms and Conditions apply to the provision of all types of services by the ski schools and ski rental shops of Pamporovo AD, irrespective of the relevant type of winter sports: alpine skiing, cross-country skiing and snowboarding.

II. GENERAL RULES

2.1. The customers of the ski school and the ski rental shops are entitled to receive information, regarding the requirements related to the type of equipment, necessary and the type of the courses they will attend, before starting the relevant course at the ski school and before receiving the sports equipment.

2.2. The customers must notify the personnel at the ski rental shops of their physical data, in order to be equipped with the most appropriate set of equipment, as well as to inform the ski tutors at the ski school of their command of the respective winter sport, so that they are included in a course, corresponding to their respective skill level.

2.3. The ski school guarantees and is held responsible that the provision of the service “practical tutoring” in the various winter sports shall be performed by ski tutors, having all necessary practical training, professional qualification and certification, in accordance with the provisions of the effective Bulgarian legislation

2.4 The customers are responsible for the condition and efficiency of their personal equipment, when they participate in the winter sports courses of the ski schools.

2.5 The ski school may discontinue the participation of certain customers in the training courses in the different winter spots, if the personnel determines that their respective equipment is inappropriate or in an inadequate condition and/or if the declared skill level in the respective winter sport does not correspond to the respective course and/or if the customers fail to follow the instructions and recommendations of the ski tutors, aimed at insuring their safety, when participating in the respective courses

2.6. The customers participate in courses, organized by the ski school at their own risk. The ski instructors at the ski schools are insured for professional liability, in accordance with the Bulgarian legislation, which compensates the customers, in case of damages or injuries, due to the proven faulty action or inaction of the tutors

2.7. The ski school shall not be held responsible and it shall not provide insurances, compensating customers and/or third parties, in case of accidents, caused intentionally or accidentally by the customer.

2.8. The provision of the ski school service – tutoring customers in various winter sports, shall take place based on a written or electronic (electronic request and confirmation) individual or group contracts with the ski school.

2.9. Customers must appear at the agreed time and place for the beginning of the courses at the ski school for tutoring in the respective winter sports, with all necessary equipment. In case of delays, non-appearance of customers, as well as in the lack of the necessary equipment, according to the preliminary instructions, the ski school shall not pay any compensation whatsoever to the customers.

2.10. When participating in the tutoring courses in the different winter sports, the customers must follow the instructions and recommendations of the ski instructors and observe the rules for safe behavior in the ski area of the Pamporovo Resort and the marking on the ski runs.

2.11. In case the ski school is unable to provide the service at the time, agreed with the customers and/or in case of termination of the provision of services prior to the agreed expiration date for reasons, beyond the control of the ski school: failures, power outage, closing of the ski area, due to adverse weather conditions, such as heavy snowfall, lack of snow, extremely high or low temperatures, fogs, hurricane wind, torrential rain etc., which could not be envisaged when purchasing the service, the ski school shall not pay cash compensations, but it can compensate its customers through an additional agreement.

2.12. The ski rental shops shall be held responsible for and guarantee that the sports equipment they rent is in good technical and operating condition, that the personnel is properly qualified and experienced to make the necessary adjustments to the equipment, in accordance with the physical data, declared by the customers, and in accordance with the requirements and specific instructions of the manufacturer of the respective equipment.

2.13. The ski rental shops shall not be held responsible for any damages, which are not the direct and immediate result of the culpable behavior of their personnel, but are caused by factors and events, beyond their control.

2.14. The personnel of the ski rental shops shall carry out the following activities, when renting sport equipment:

2.14.1. Providing the customers with equipment, corresponding to the height (in centimeters), weight (in kilograms), shoe number (according to the European standards) declared by the customers.

2.14.2. Adjusting the binders according to the physical data and skill level in the respective wintersport, declared by the customer, and to the technical requirements and specific instructions of the manufacturer of the respective brand of the rented sports equipment.

2.15. The provision of the service – rental of ski equipment shall take place, based on written or electronic (by means of an electronic request and confirmation) individual or group contracts.

III. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CUSTOMERS AND PERSONNEL OF THE SKI RENTAL SHOPS WHEN RENTING SPORTS EQUIPMENT

3.1. The customers must provide the personnel of the ski rental shops with true and correct information, regarding their physical details (height in centimeters, weight in kilograms and EU number of shoes) as well as regarding their skill level in the respective winter sport, in order to be equipped with an appropriate set of equipment and for the appropriate adjustment of the binders.

3.2. After signing the contract for sports equipment rental, the customer shall acquire the personal right to use the rented equipment on the ski runs, which are open and ready for use. The customers may not give the respective equipment to third parties, or use it outside the ski area of the Pamporovo Resort

3.3. The customers must use the rented sports equipment in an appropriate manner, in order to avoid any damages or loss of the equipment.

3.4. The customers may not make changes to the adjustment of the equipment, made by the personnel of the ski rental shop. If further adjustment is required, the customer must request from the personnel of the ski rental shop to carry out any such further adjustment. Any subsequent adjustment to the equipment must also be reflected in the rental agreement.

3.5. The customers must not affix any signs or marks on the rented equipment, and no parts thereof must be removed or loosened.

3.6. In case the rented equipment is damaged or needs repairs, the customer must return it to the ski rental shop, where he/she has received it, for the relevant repairs.

3.7. The returning of the rented equipment by the customers must take place on a daily basis, irrespective of the number of days, for which it has been requested, unless stipulated otherwise in the contract.

3.8. If the customer wishes to extend the period of use of the equipment, he/she must do that before the expiration of the rental period, set out in the contract.

3.9. If the customer returns the equipment, after the expiration of the period, set out in the contract, the ski rental shop may request from the customer to pay for the time of using the equipment, based on the price, set out in the pricelist of the ski rental shop for the shortest period of sports equipment rental.

3.10. The personnel at the ski rental shop shall be held responsible for the proper adjustment of the equipment, made based on the individual information, provided by the customer and in conformity with the requirements and specific instructions of the respective equipment manufacturer.

IV. DAMAGES TO OR LOSS OF THE RENTED SPORTS EQUIPMENT
